Dana is a partner of the firm. She joined the firm in 1997. She has been a member of the Slovak Bar Association since 2001.

Dana advises mostly foreign clients, as well as financial and insurance companies, on investments, acquisitions, and project restructuring. Her considerable experience includes acting as an advisor on the privatisation of a number of significant state-owned energy companies. She has a busy corporate practice, advising on a wide range of acquisition projects for foreign clients entering or investing in the Slovak market, M&A and other corporate transactions, and general commercial law and project financing.

Dana has extensive experience analysing and structuring complex commercial projects and related commercial contracts.

Dana is fluent in English and German.

Her experience and professionalism is appreciated also by international industry monitoring organizations:

"Dana Nemčíková, who focuses mostly on M&A's, is thought by many of her competitors as exceptionally hard working and intelligent." (IFLR 1000, 2011)

"The company may take pride in such professionals like Dana Nemčíková and the company's foreign partner Ian Parker." (IFLR 1000, 2010)
